

McArthur, Carl

Gets Air Medal 17 1945

Staff Sergeant Carl McArthur, 22, Fortress ball turret gunner now flying with the Eighth Air Force, has recently been decorated with the Air Medal at the 388th Bomb. Group commanded by Lieut. Col. Chester Cox of Superior, Wis.

The award was for "meritorious achievement" during bombing attacks against Nazi war industries and military targets in support of Allied ground forces. Sgt. McArthur's wife resides at 609 East Fifth Street.

January 17, 1945