

Kalman, Olga

Good Conduct Medal For WAC Sergeant

RAPID CITY ARMY AIR BASE, S. D.—Fourteen members of the WAC detachment stationed at this base were recently awarded Good Conduct medals at a squadron formation. Among those receiving the award was Sgt. Olga Kalman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kalman, 1014 Evans Street, Bethlehem, Pa.

APR 4 1944
While the United States is at war, the decorations are given for the honorable completion of one year of Federal military service with exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity. Only those who have maintained the character rating of "excellent" are entitled to consideration for the medal.

Sgt. Kalman has been stationed at the Flying Fortress training base at Rapid City for the past ten months, where she is a file clerk in the base personnel office.
