

Zimpfer, Arthur E.

REPORT AT KNOX

Intent upon mastering the mysteries of operating a radio set from rumbling, rolling tanks and half-tracks, a new class of enlisted men had reported today to the Armored School Communication Department, upon orders of Maj. Gen. Alvin C. Gillon, Jr., chief of the Armored Command at Ft. Knox, Ky. Among the soldier students were: Pvt. First Class Daniel A. Facchiano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Facchiano of 510 Pawnee Street, Bethlehem, and Pvt. Arthur E. Zimpfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Zimpfer of 228 Main Street, Hellertown.

August 13, 1943