WHERE TO FIND

Whether you are visiting Musikfest for the first time, or are a seasoned attendee, we urge you to look through the next few pages. They contain information on a range of services and facilities you may need as you enjoy your stay at the festival.

ACCESS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Public parking with relatively easy access for persons with disabilities is available in the Walnut Street Parking Garage, located within the festival site. Reserved off-site festival parking is available only at the Lehigh Shopping Center, off Union Blvd. A free shuttle bus, provided by Good Shepherd Rehabilitation Hospital, will transport a person with a disability and a companion to the festival. Reserved parking for persons with disabilities is not available at any of the Musikfest sites, however, there is parking for persons with disabilities on Conestoga Street, near Festplatz.

Most Musikfest sites are wheelchair accessible.
Points of entry are:

- Americaplatz — Church Street at New Street.
- Familienplatz — Broad Street Mall at New or Guetter Streets.
- Festplatz — Spring and Main Streets.
- Kinderplatz — Spring and Main Streets.
- Kunstplatz — Moravian College Church Street Campus parking lot. Note: This is a private parking lot, and the general public may not park in it.
- Liederplatz — Walnut Street entrance, and Main Street entrance at the Sun Inn.
- Main Street — Broad and Main Streets.
- Volksplatz — From Festplatz over the Stone Arch Bridge, or from Union Boulevard onto Old York Road.

Few architectural barriers exist throughout the Musikfest site, but there is a steep hill going down Main Street from the corner of Church Street to Festplatz and Kunstplatz. Handwerkplatz, Kinderplatz, Kunstplatz and Volksplatz, are located on grassy areas.

Near the Kunstplatz stage, there will be a seating area in the grass for persons in wheelchairs. Cost is the same as general seating for the concert. Musikfest reserves the right to limit the number of people admitted on this site to watch a concert.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

The Bethlehem Musikfest Association offers an assortment of beer, wine and coolers for purchase by our patrons at Americaplatz, Festplatz, Liederplatz, Musikfest Bandstand, and Volksplatz. Please enjoy your drinks at these sites and do not bring your own beverages to the festival. Since Musikfest is a nonprofit corporation, the proceeds from food and beverage sales defray the cost of presenting more than 650 free musical performances at the festival.

We ask that you do not carry alcoholic beverages outside these entertainment areas. State law prohibits removal of alcoholic beverages from the areas at which they are served, and you maybe stopped.

The legal drinking age in Pennsylvania is 21. Musikfest staff or volunteers may request photo identification from anyone purchasing alcoholic beverages. Minors will not be served. Musikfest reserves the right to withhold service from anyone who lacks proof of age. The City of Bethlehem Police may also check IDs and deal with those who behave irresponsibly.

DRINKING AND DRIVING DON'T MIX!

If you or a friend who is driving has had too much to drink, locate the nearest information booth, and a cab will be called for you at your expense.

- Summit Bank at One Bethlehem Plaza on Familienplatz.
- First Star Savings Bank at 418 West Broad Street near Third Avenue.

Riders should bring their own locks. Bicycles will be kept in monitored racks from noon until 8 p.m. daily. All cyclists will receive a one day pass for the Musikfest Trolley.

Vendors displaying this sign are authorized by Musikfest and contribute a significant portion of their proceeds to help present the free music at the festival. We strongly encourage your patronage. Coca-Cola products are available at outdoor sites. For a listing of beer

A Day in the Lives of Musikfest Volunteers

by Kimberly Smith

Each year, more than 1,800 dedicated men, women and youngsters give their time, talent and energy to Musikfest as volunteers. They help with set-up, clean team, Coke booths, ticket sales, supply, souvenir sales, ushering, flowers, security, trolleys, kids crafts, staging, and more.

During the festival, many of our volunteers work anywhere from six to 27 shifts, coming in every day and staying from morning until night. And though it would be impossible to mention every volunteer in every position, we wanted to highlight some of the jobs our volunteers do to make Musikfest one of the greatest festivals in the country.

In this article, you'll read about some of the people who work behind the scenes to make Musikfest happen, starting at 7:30 a.m. and continuing through to 11 p.m.

Betty and Russ Stocker — Flower Committee volunteers. Musikfest opens at noon, but volunteers begin earlier. Take the Stockers, who for the past six years have arrived every morning at 7:30 a.m. to water the flowers around the festival site. (Except when it rains!) They water the barrels on Broad & Main Sts., weed at Blumenplatz, handle the flowers on the wooden bridge by Festplatz and maintain the butterfly garden at Volksplatz.

They are also at Festplatz making bouquets for the tables where persons with physical disabilities sit to enjoy the shows. Betty and Russ say one of the nicest things about the flower committee is their "friendships remain all year long."

8 a.m.

Dave Dunn — Volunteer & Verein Shuttle driver. Dave, a school bus driver for Catasauqua School District, volunteers for Musikfest nearly every day. He served beer in 1985, then when the volunteer and Verein shuttles began operating, he decided to run the shuttle in the mornings and serve beer in the evenings. Dave gives between 12 to 15 shifts during Musikfest.

He arrives at the Musikfest office at 7:45 a.m. to pick up keys, then heads out to the Minsi Trail parking lot to bring set-up volunteers on-site. He begins driving the Verein shuttle at noon, picking up Verein members at Lehigh University. In the evening, he is a beer server at Volksplatz.

9 a.m.

Ed Brinkos — Volksplatz set-up site supervisor. When patrons arrive at Musikfest, they see clean tables, empty trash barrels and neat rows of chairs. Since we're fairly sure no gremlins come in during the night to do these things, it must be volunteers like Ed who from 9 a.m. to noon do site set-up.

Ed, an eight-year volunteer, does everything from re-setting chairs to putting liners in garbage barrels to getting food vendors in and out of the site by 11 a.m. He and a crew of other volunteers also get ice for wine and Coke booths, help bring inventory on site and wipe tables.

Ed and his son Todd work together at Volksplatz. Ed says it's a great way to spend time with Todd, now in college. Musikfest week means vacation for Ed and his family, who come to the festival every night to eat supper and enjoy the music.

10 a.m.

Cindy Schappell — Office phone operator. During the festival, the phones literally ring off the hook! Cindy, and volunteers like her, are part of the phone crew in the Musikfest office. She started as a ticket booth volunteer at Kunstplatz ten years ago. Now Cindy does about four phone shifts on weekends, plus supervises at Kunstplatz in the evenings.

She says she enjoys helping people on the phone and chatting with folks about the festival. Cindy also says there's never a dull moment! Answering the phones gives her a chance know what's going on around the festival. She handles about 30 calls a day, and even more when it rains. She says people call more at the beginning of the festival, especially on the first day.

Judy Yuhas — Performer hospitality. Judy, now in her ninth year as a performer hospitality volunteer, has been with Musikfest since 1984. The performer hospitality center is where musicians and other acts can go during the festival to relax, practice, get a drink and something to munch on, like cookies and fruit. It has air conditioning and indoor restrooms, plus tables and cozy couches.

Judy makes fruit baskets for performers, takes care of the green room at Kunstplatz, makes sure performers around the festival have drinks, and serves refreshments to performers. She also assists with set-up and take-down of the hospitality area. Last year, Roberta Flack and her associates came to the hospitality center after their concert. Judy says it was so much fun because they all had huge water pistols which they used in a water battle!

Noon

Jo Stern — Kinderplatz ticket and information booth supervisor. In her nine years as a Musikfest volunteer, Jo has met visitors from around the world. She began keeping a notebook of people she met in 1993. She and a friend got involved in Musikfest at the same time. Her sister is now also a volunteer, selling tickets at Festplatz.

Jo, a ticket and information booth supervisor for five years, enjoys Kinderplatz. She recalls when several young boys from Spain were visiting. She found out they wanted to call their families, and she told them a phone company was offering free calls to Europe. They called home and were so happy they came back to thank her. Another volunteer took pictures of the boys, got their address, then sent them the photos.

Rich Hawk — Supply team supervisor. During the festival, Rich is one of about 16 volunteers who stock the sites with necessary supplies. They deliver everything from cups to snacks to souvenirs to ice. Rich, the supply committee chair, also works with the operations manager before the festival to place orders for inventory.

Rich has been a volunteer for eight years and a committee chair for four. He and his wife, Beth, started volunteering together. He remembers one time when they used a station wagon to deliver ice. They had it filled to the hilt and got stuck in a traffic jam on Broad Street. The ice started leaking out of the wagon and it left a water trail! But they still delivered the ice (that hadn't melted)!

2 p.m.

John Elliott — Pressplatz supervisor. John came on board in 1991 as a Pressplatz volunteer. Today, he chairs the Media Relations Committee. John and other Pressplatz volunteers assist the media, arrange and coordinate interviews, escort media backstage, notify media of changes, pitch stories, and follow-up on story ideas. He traditionally takes vacation during the week of the festival and volunteers almost every day.

A favorite memory is when Crystal Gayle was here. A man in a wheelchair asked John to get Crystal's autograph. John went backstage to ask the manager (who happened to be Crystal's husband) if he could get the autograph. The manager asked where the man in the wheelchair was sitting, then went out front and wheeled him backstage to meet Crystal personally. John said it was a great feeling!

3 p.m.

Patsy Hebor — Teen supervisor. Patsy, a Bethlehem native, has been a Musikfest volunteer since 1985. A few years ago, she became a teen supervisor, a program which provides support to the many students who volunteer at the festival. Patsy, chair of the teen volunteer sub-committee, wanted to cultivate teen volunteers. She realized students are the future of Musikfest volunteers.

Her job is to visit teens during their shifts to make sure they are comfortable with their jobs and to answer questions. She is one of three teen supervisors who roam the festival in search of teen volunteers. Patsy visits about 50 teens per shift.

She also assists with first time teen training. She says teens really seem to enjoy volunteering at Musikfest, and many do it on their own, not because of school or family members.

4 p.m.

Wilson Slotter — Volunteer hospitality. A retired Bethlehem Steel employee and Bethlehem native, Wilson works in volunteer hospitality during Musikfest. He started in 1994. At the hospitality centers, Wilson serves drinks, makes sure there's enough ice and soda, greets volunteers, helps keep the centers clean and makes coffee.

He says he got involved because he wanted something to do and he liked Musikfest. At 79, Wilson is also active in other organizations as a volunteer. He says he enjoys chatting with volunteers on their breaks and is always willing to answer questions. In addition to volunteer hospitality, Wilson also works as a trolley host a few nights during Musikfest.

Luanna LaBriola — Main Street assistant site supervisor. After she relocated to the Lehigh Valley from Brooklyn, N.Y. in 1989, Luanna became a Musikfest volunteer. She is now an assistant site supervisor and works nights on Main Street, along with Chico Freitas. Together, they make sure the site is running smoothly. They handle questions from volunteers, vendors, and patrons. Luanna says she does a lot of walking up and down Main Street during her nine shifts.

She finds it interesting to come across so many people from so many different areas, and really has fun working the festival. Luanna is impressed with the way so many volunteers come together and do such a great job. They may not know each other, but they're all working toward a common goal, and Luanna is proud to be a part of the Musikfest volunteer family.

Roger Hanzelman — Candlelight Concert usher. In 1984, Roger was a green team volunteer, and has since become a Candlelight Concert usher as well. Roger arrives at Foy Concert Hall around 4:30 p.m. for the ticket/cash box. Before the performance, he sells any remaining tickets and gives people tickets they bought in advance. He also determines if there are available seats for the 6 p.m. performances.

Roger assists persons in wheelchairs into the auditorium and monitors the area where performers sell their tapes and CDS. Other volunteers collect tickets from patrons as they enter the hall, then escort patrons to their seats. Roger says he answers many questions from festival visitors who stop in Foy Hall.

After the concert, ushers help clean up and handle lost and found items. Roger reconciles the ticket/cash box, which is then given to security. He enjoys meeting many interesting people each year.

Iva Ferris — Communications dispatcher. Iva was initiated as a Musikfest volunteer in 1995 when she was asked to fill a vacant spot in communications. She ended up joining the year round committee! She and her husband, Gary Onuschak, were radio dispatchers during the festival. Iva's father, Henry Ferris, is a year round Musikfest volunteer.

As a radio operator, Iva monitored incoming radio transmissions, manned the phone and logged all communication. Some transmissions are humorous, while others can be related to emergencies. Generally two people work the shift, but sometimes she was alone, and it was hectic. Iva says she can now better appreciate the amount of work that goes into the festival, because she's seen it from the other side.

8 p.m.

Mary Beth Leeson — Safety supervisor. As the chair of the safety committee, Mary Beth supervises safety volunteers who roam the festival looking for holes in the ground, missing caps on tent stakes, electrical wires and other hazards. Volunteers try to correct problems when found. Sometimes, it requires notifying the operations manager, who then sends additional help or supplies.

Safety volunteers work in teams of two, with one team on the upper sites and one on the lower. Mary Beth fills out incident reports and make recommendations to the committee. She also works closely with the Bethlehem EMS.

Ben Phillips - Teen trolley host. Ben started as a clean team volunteer four years ago and has been a trolley host for the past three. This Bethlehem Catholic High senior works about five shifts during the festival, helping patrons on and off the trolley. During the ride, he entertains the passengers by asking questions, telling them which bands are playing and giving them interesting facts about Musikfest. Many people also ask Ben questions, and he keeps the Souvenir Program Book by his side at all times, just in case he doesn't know the answer.

He remembers one ride where everyone on the trolley broke out into spontaneous song - to the Chicken Dance tune! He recalls some people waited in line to get back on his trolley later that week. Ben says he enjoys the evening shifts because the trolleys are full, and he has a lot of fun with all the people he meets.

Kay Moran — Green Team supervisor. Kay has been with the Musikfest Green Team since 1985. Kay, a Meridian Bank employee, analyzes the festival's cash/currency needs, both as a whole and by site. This helps Musikfest to pre-order the money needed during the festival.

Green team volunteers count and verify ticket boxes, assist security in distributing cash boxes to the sites, and prepare money for deposit. As tickets are sold, boxes come back to the Green Team who then verifies the amount and prepares a new box. Kay says it's a very hectic position, especially near closing, when the volunteers are working on a deadline.

Joe Penses — Staging/stage manager. Though he helped out in 1984, Joe became an official Musikfest volunteer in 1985. As a staging person, Joe helps to make sure the shows go on as scheduled by helping with change overs between groups, making announcements and coordinating the efforts between the performer and the sound company.

With his production background, Joe knows his way around backstage and is often the stage manager at Volksplatz and sometimes a roving stage manager at Kunstplatz. Most sites have about three staging volunteers, while Kunstplatz has about 12. Joe works 14 to 15 shifts, which is basically every day.

A fond memory is when he and Doris Mack needed to find a group to fill-in for a no-show. They found the River Boat Banjo Band, who got in the back of his pick-up truck and started playing. They continued all the way up Main & Broad Streets on their way to the Broad St. Mall. Joe says it was wild!

Ed Boksan — Year 1 LEAP participant. As a junior in high school, Ed volunteered for Musikfest in a Coke booth. Following graduation from Penn State, he came back to his home town and to Musikfest. He became as souvenir/ticket booth supervisor. Last year, he did about seven shifts at various sites.

Ed is now in the Musikfest LEAP program, which stands for Leadership Education and Preparedness. He applied to LEAP because he thinks Musikfest is good for the community and he wanted to be more involved in the festival. He also realized the need for younger volunteers to enter leadership positions. He says he's amazed at the size of the festival and how it's pulled off, and being a LEAP person gives him the opportunity to get a hands-on look at how the festival is run.

Kudos to all our volunteers — we couldn't do it without you!

10 TIPS for Staying Cool at Musikfest

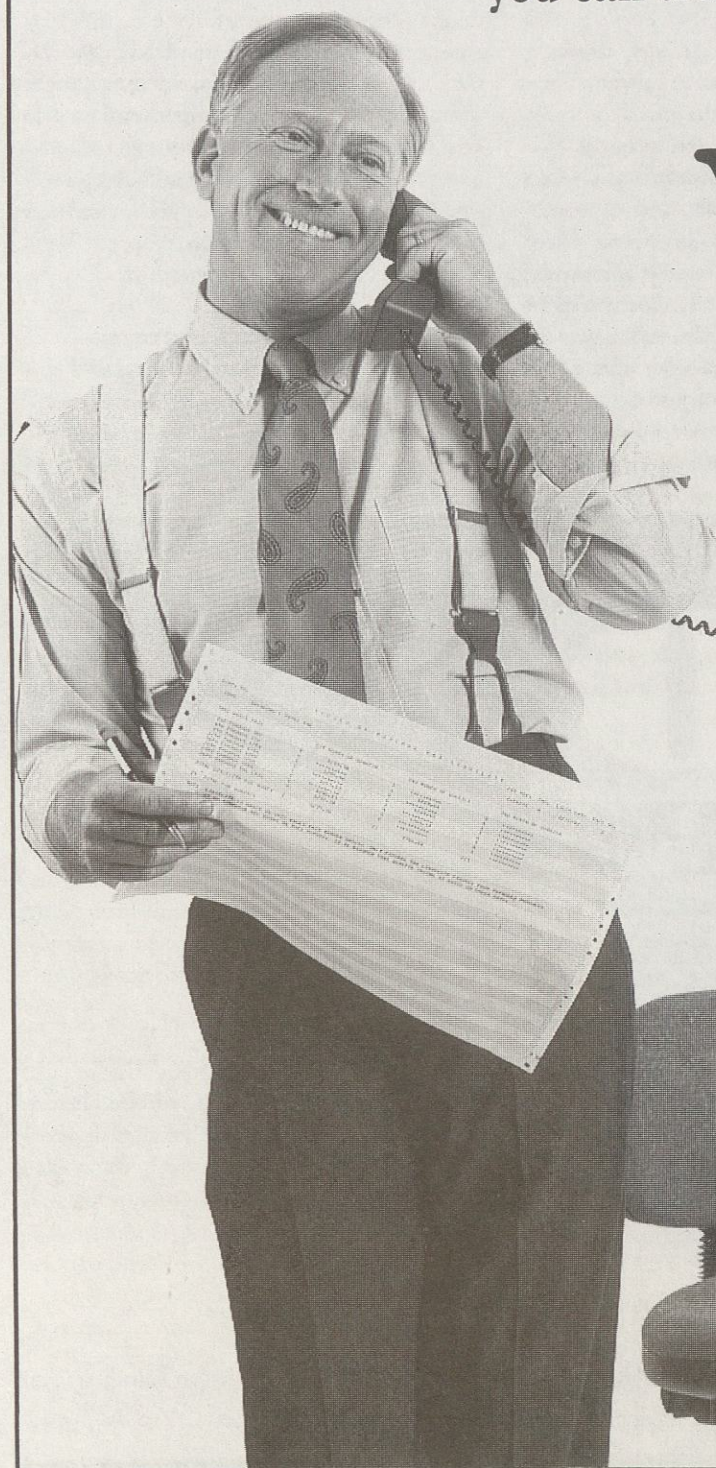

by Kimberly Smith and Claudine Elzey

Don't let the heat spoil your day at Musikfest! Cool off with these tips offered by the Bethlehem Musikfest Association and the Bethlehem Health Bureau:

1. Wear light colored clothing, preferably cotton.
2. Wear a hat with a brim to cover your face from the sun.
3. Apply sun screen (at least SPF 8) to exposed skin. Children should be well protected.
4. Drink plenty of fluids, especially after dancing or walking.
5. Sit down and rest if you feel tired.
6. Find shade, when possible. There are plenty of trees in Bethlehem.
7. Have some ice cream!
8. Take the Musikfest trolley around the festival.
9. Take a break, relax and watch the people go by.
10. Stop in the air conditioned Musikfest store (on Familienplatz) and buy a souvenir of your visit.

LEAP

A Realm of Possibility

by Meg Shovlin

Last year, the Musikfest team added an innovative program that develops supervisory skills in volunteers and provides them with views of the festival they may never have seen before. This program, called LEAP (Leadership, Education, and Preparedness), is a two-year program.

Musikfest selected ten volunteers for the first year and introduced them to areas of the festival that had not yet seen. "They're scheduled at sites where they have not previously volunteered, and at sites where they have not yet supervised," said Volunteer Coordinator Jo Pritchett. "After Musikfest has ended, we encourage them to attend committee meetings to expose them to the planning aspects of the festival," she added.

These volunteers, now in year two, will concentrate their shifts on specific Musikfest sites and areas. One or more of these shifts will be spent shadowing a Site/ Assistant Site Supervisor, enabling the LEAP volunteer to learn site procedures. Once the festival has ended, they can join one of the festival's year-round committees, and take a leadership role in it.

Jim Sikora and Karen Barwick have been volunteering at Musikfest since 1989, and work annually at Dankeplatz. What makes them different from the other participants? They are engaged!

Jim mentioned that before he was chosen for LEAP, he had worked at ticket booths, souvenir stands and refreshment stands. He stated, "The LEAP program was a good experience. I liked the diversity the most — it makes it different from what normal volunteers do." Jim added LEAP is a good program, and works very well.

Karen Barwick had volunteered at a number of areas at Musikfest before she was chosen for LEAP, including Volksplatz, Festplatz and Americaplatz. She has taken tickets and been a part of the clean team. Karen also does shifts with her fiancé at Dankeplatz, where she hopes to one day hold the position of Site Supervisor. She stated, "The LEAP program gives people a choice to work at areas they've never seen before. I'd like to see it continue."

Another Year 1 volunteer who shared her view of LEAP was Carol Deluca. When she began as a volunteer at Musikfest, she sold tickets and some souvenirs. Now, she works at Kinderplatz, the beverage tent and serves on the clean team. "The LEAP program has given me a broad spectrum of experience, which I can hopefully use for a position as a supervisor. I also really enjoyed the interaction with various people," she said.

How do volunteers become LEAPers? Pritchett, who is at the head of this new program, asks volunteers to recommend peers whom they feel would most benefit from the program. Once this is complete, an application process begins.

In January, volunteers receive information about the program, along with an application.

For those who participated in LEAP the previous year, they assist by sending in their volunteer recommendations. Jo checks the references and numerically ranks each applicant. She then reviews the list with the rest of the Musikfest staff, and the Volunteer Committee approves ten of them.

LEAP program participants attend three training sessions, one in April, May and June. This exposes them to detailed aspects of festival management such as site design and staging. They also attend a general volunteer training session in July.

During the festival in August, all LEAP participants meet one morning at the office for breakfast and a tour of behind-the-scenes areas of Musikfest. This gives them an opportunity to share their experiences with each other and sparks great discussions. In September, all participants evaluate the program and offer ideas for future LEAP volunteers.

Criteria for LEAP are: being a Musikfest volunteer, attending training sessions, making decisions and taking responsibility for them, assuming leadership roles, and creating a positive experience for other volunteers. By meeting these criteria, volunteers can not only be a part of Musikfest's continued growth, but also foster a fine tradition.

Okay, So You've Lost a Pair of...

By Meg Shovlin

Did you ever lose something important? Maybe you lost your date book, or your boss's agenda for a meeting that's in two minutes, or the last piece to that thousand piece puzzle you've been working on for three months. Maybe you've even lost your mind on a bad day!

How about a more personal item, such as an article of clothing or an undergarment? How could you lose something like that, you may ask? You'll be amazed to learn what's been turned in to the lost and found at Musikfest.

Jane Fondl, Executive Secretary to Musikfest President Jeff Parks, is responsible for the festival's lost and found department. During the festival, she gets numerous pairs of glasses, keys, baby bottles and umbrellas. Some rather unusual items have been turned in as well, including a brassiere and a pair of pants! Surprisingly, no one ever claimed those pants. Hopefully, it was warm enough that evening during Musikfest, and the person who lost them didn't catch a cold.

Several wallets have also been in the lost and found pile. These are easily returned to the owners as they usually contain identification.

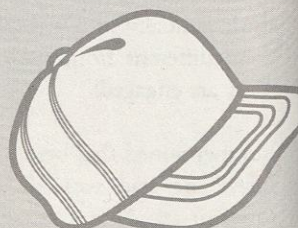

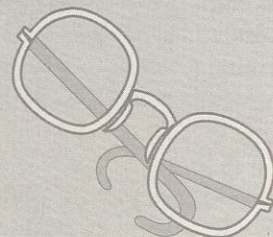

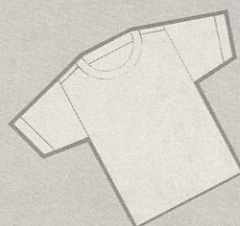

Among the successful return of lost items is a pair of glasses to a woman who lives out of state. She called a few weeks after Musikfest had ended and reported she had lost her glasses somewhere on the festival grounds. Luckily, a pair of glasses fit the description she gave and Jane safely mailed them to the rightful owner. These glasses were returned in good shape, but some items are not as lucky. Lost and found items are kept in a big cardboard box. Heaven knows what these items go through before being turned in to the Musikfest office.

On a serious note, items lost at Musikfest are turned into one of several ticket booths located throughout the festival grounds. They are taken to the office and can be picked up there. Once items are turned in, Jane makes a complete list of them. She matches them to descriptions called in, and returns them to their rightful owners. Jane holds unclaimed items for a month after the last day of Musikfest. After thirty-one days, clothes are cut up and used as dust rags at the office, glasses are stomped on and other items seem to fade away into oblivion. Luckily, none of these items have surfaced the following year.

You may ask, what is the point of this story? Well, it's nothing really, it's just to let you know that if you lose something at Musikfest, there is a 50-50 shot that you still may get it...if it's turned in to the lost and found that is.

Oh, and finally, if any unfinished drinks are found near the wine and beer tent during the week of the festival, they will be thrown into the nearest garbage can, immediately!

WHEN IS MUSIKFEST 2000?

One of the most frequently asked questions we receive at the Musikfest office is

"What are the dates of Musikfest?"

It always begins on the second Saturday of August and continues for nine days, but people want dates. So we put together the dates for the next five years, which takes Musikfest into the next Millennium!!! Save this page and hang it on your fridge, or post it on a bulletin board, for future reference.

Musikfest Dates:

Musikfest '97	August 9-17
Musikfest '98	August 8-16
Musikfest '99	August 14-22
Musikfest 2000	August 12-20
Musikfest 2001	August 11-19

We look forward to seeing you at Musikfest into the next century.
Thank You for your continued support of this world-renowned festival.

People send us letters each year, many to say what a wonderful time they had at the festival, others to offer suggestions and even some to lodge a complaint. The following letter, though, is so touching and heart felt, we wanted to share it with our patrons. This letter was reprinted with permission from Mrs. Peggy Geeting.

Dear Sir/Madam:

November 30, 1995

This is to request that you delete Lyle P. Geeting's name from your mailing list. Lyle passed away on October 14, 1995. The Musikfest Association sent me a sympathy card for which I thank you all.

Lyle suffered a stroke in 1985 and despite his disability (limited use of his right hand and arm), he volunteered for Musikfest which he loved and you found a place for him to serve: as usher at Kunstplatz! He loved it, and was so proud of his shirts, pins, etc. — he had a "collection" of 8 shirts, which he happily continued to wear over the years.

From time to time, Musikfest thanks their volunteers (and rightly so) — but I wanted to point out that volunteers ought to thank the Musikfest Association: it gives everyone a chance to serve in some capacity!

I thank you and I'm sure there are others who feel the same way. Please continue to provide the disabled, elderly and wheelchair-bound members of the community an opportunity to volunteer and serve at Musikfest.

Sincerely,
Peggy Geeting

Meet me at the Musikfest Message Center

by Margaret Barchine

A bunch of friends arrive for an entertaining day at Musikfest 96. Two members want to see a Chamber Concert in the Old Chapel while the others have tickets to see Diamond Rio at Kunstplatz. Both concerts begin at 7:30 pm and finish at different times. After talking — ad nauseam — about different places to regroup, one of the friends smacks her palm on her forehead and says, "Why not use the Musikfest Message Center on site?"

New for 1996, the Message Center at Familienplatz is the place where friends, family and people who came together but didn't want to spend time with each other, can arrange to meet after a show. Cellular phones and pagers will be available at this location.

Bell Atlantic NYNEX Mobile will provide this service to work in several ways. In the case of the friends, they can rent a pager with the understanding that at a general time, once paged, the separated party can meet at the Message Center to return the rented equipment and possibly head home. This is a convenient way to keep in touch with each other and to remind each other of rendezvous times.

Another option is the message board where patrons can post written notes. Love letters, notes of adoration, and short, cute stories are encouraged. You may also choose to leave the serious — boring — message of what time you can be expected home for the evening. It's your option to do what you will!

The birth of this Musikfest Message Center arose from a staff brainstorming session. The idea was to create a central meeting location for festival patrons. Bell Atlantic NYNEX, the official cellular phone company of Musikfest, took the idea further to premier at this year's festival.

For those who rent a pager, phone banks are between Festplatz and Kinderplatz, and at Volksplatz. Free cellular calls will be available at the Bell Atlantic booth at Festplatz, and of course, from the Musikfest Message Center location.

Not to worry though, the security deposit you leave for the pager will be refunded once the beeper finds its way safely back into the space of the center it calls home.

For those who like the idea of using phone cards, Musikfest has those too, in $5.00, $10.00 and $20.00 increments. They are sold in the Souvenir Store on Familienplatz or at souvenir tents throughout the festival.

While Musikfest activities take up one square mile, visitors can have peace of mind knowing that loved ones are easily reached — if they choose to respond to the pages.

MEMORABLE MUSIKFEST MOMENTS

*Everyone has treasured memories of Musikfests past.
 Here, BMA staff members share some of theirs:*

"I remember the first year I saw the fireworks from the Hotel Bethlehem. I was in Pressplatz and we took media on the roof to get footage. The view was absolutely spectacular! It was warm and clear, and you could hear music from the radio station coming up from near Kinderplatz. I could see thousands of people on the Hill-To-Hill bridge and Main St. Ramp, and when the fireworks ended, everyone cheered and applauded. It was wonderful!"

Kim Smith, communications assistant

"I can't say I have just one special memory, but I've got dozens that relate to our volunteers. Musikfest volunteers are in many ways like a big family. It's truly heartwarming to see them greet each other each August. It's almost like a reunion! During the year, I get many phone calls, letters and visits from people who share their thoughts and opinions with me. Sometimes, they ask about other volunteers they have worked with in previous years, because they miss them and want to see them. I've even played match maker on occasion!"

Jo Pritchett, volunteer coordinator

"In the winter of 1989, Tom Kwiatek, Pat Holetz and I went to Twin County studios to tape a Jolly Joe Timmer show...live. Everything was going well. Pat performed The Chicken Dance, but the record got stuck and it took us over a minute to realize Pat was repeating the same motion over and over. She was trying to whisper to us the recording was stuck, but we couldn't hear her! Someone finally fixed the record and we went on with the show."

Maggie Barchine, director of communications

"There was much speculation in 1984 that Musikfest would be a colossal flop. The first day, the curious arrived - and stayed - and danced and had the best party they'd had in years. All this under the Hill to Hill Bridge! They told their friends. By Friday, Bethlehem was having a reunion. And as the second Sunday rolled around, people wanted to just celebrate. We suggested an candlelight procession - beginning at 9:00 pm. Just a simple thing from Broad and Main to the Festplatz tent. One horse drawn carriage, a few street performers, a drum and bugle corps, some very tired volunteers and the "Spirit". I will always remember Main Street with hundreds of people lining the street holding their candles high in a victory of the Human Spirit. I remember looking back when the carriage reached Church Street - all of Main Street and the ramp of the Hill to Hill Bridge was a sea of candles."

Jeff Parks, president

"One morning one my way in at about 8 a.m., I heard music as I approached Familienplatz. As I got closer, I found a small but attentive audience of children listening to an impromptu performance. The guest artist was a familiar face to downtown northside and southside residents — he was one of our homeless persons. He was darn good, too, considering he probably doesn't get the chance to play very often. It definitely had the makings of a Norman Rockwell painting."

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

The Amherst Saxophone Quartet

The Amherst Saxophone Quartet is a full-time professional ensemble that divides its time between touring and its residency at the University of Buffalo in Western New York and the Buffalo Seminary.

The Quartet is now in its nineteenth season of concert performances. Highlights include NYC's Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center, Washington D.C.'s Kennedy Center, summer festivals at the Chautauqua Institution, N.Y. and Bethlehem P.A.'s Musikfest.

Over the years, the group has performed in the USA from Maine to Hawaii and was invite to perform in Japan in 1993 and the Bermuda Festival in 1995. The Sax Quartet has been heard on National Public Radio, St. Paul Sunday Morning and Voice of America, and has played on NBC's Tonight Show.

In the Fall of 1983, the Amherst Saxophone Quartet inaugurated their first September-June concert series. An immediate box office success and a favorite of the critics, the series has grown to include twelve concerts in three different locations.

The ensemble was awarded Chamber Music America Residency Grants for the seasons spanning the dates from 1985 through 1988. In 1993, the group received First Prize for Adventure-some Programming from Chamber Music America/ASCAP. The Quartet was awarded commissioning prizes from both Chamber Music America and the National Endowment for the Arts.

ASQ has a total of six albums of recorded music with MCA, Musical Heritage Society and Mark Records. These include two recordings of American Music, one devoted entirely to the music of Eubie Blake and CDS devoted to J.S. Bach, Mozart and the Quartet's newest, an all jazz disc.

A performing member of Young Audiences of Western New York since 1979, the group has worked with programs for young people at the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, Aesthetic Education Institute in Rochester, N.Y. and the Arts in Education Program in Buffalo.

While on tour, the Quartet participates in many short term residency programs and frequently gives workshops with grade school students as well as those at the university level. The members of ASQ are appointed clinicians for Selmer Saxophone Company and Van Doren Reed products.

The Amherst Saxophone Quartet receives funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts, the county of Erie, the City of Buffalo, some foundations and corporations and many individual sponsors.

During the '70s and '80s, they racked up hits like "Brick House," "Easy," and "Three Times a Lady." The departure of lead vocalist Lionel Richie in 1983 was not enough to discourage the band from recording more hits, including their 1984 hit "Night Shift." Following the end of their Motown record deal, the Commodores signed with Polydor, but asked to be released from their obligations in the late 80s. In 1991, the Commodores began creating all new digital recordings of the group's classic hits. They also formed their own record label, Commodores Records and Entertainment. CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVISITED. Doug "Cosmo" Clifford, Stu Cook, Elliott Easton, John Tristao, and Steve Gunner. In the summer of 1972, Creedence Clearwater Revival (CCR) performed its final concert and formally disbanded that fall. Throughout the late '60s and early '70s, CCR had a string of hits that captured the heart of our nation's conscience and the center of its soul. In January, 1995, original band members Clifford and Cook pooled their talents to form what has become Creedence Clearwater Revisited. While no band could replace CCR or John Fogerty, Revisited produces a sound which is remarkably similar, and will thrill audiences with renditions of classics like "Susie-Q," "Who'll Stop the rain," "Bad Moon Rising," and "Down on the Corner." Says Cook, "Creedence Clearwater Revisited is a close to the real thing as anybody's gonna get." CONTACT: Variety Attractions, (614) 453-0394. AUG. 12

"A NIGHT IN NEW ORLEANS", featuring PETE FOUNTAIN and AL HIRT with the PRESERVATION HALL JAZZ BAND. Wendell Brunious, Willie Humphrey, Sadie Peterson, Worthia G. Thomas, Frank Fields and Neil Gilbert Unterseher. New Orleans. Preservation Hall was built in 1750 as a residence in the heart of New Orleans' French Quarter. Over the years, it has served as a tavern, an art gallery and a rehearsal hall. The band plays New Orleans jazz, but the Preservation Hall Band musicians do not know what numbers they will play from concert to concert - they decide as the night progresses based on their unerring instinct for sizing up the audience. The band has been touring the U.S. for over 25 years and received the Wolf Trap Medal for Excellence in the Performing Arts. It is a rare treat to see Al Hirt and Pete Fountain play with the band. Hirt, jazz trumpeter, was recently honored by the Charlie "Bird" Parker Memorial Foundation with its prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. SITES OF MUSIKFEST

The naming of the sites, "platz," and the unique spelling of the festival itself reflects Bethlehem's rich Moravian heritage, evident in the city's architecture on Main and Church Streets and within the 18th Century Moravian Industrial Quarter.

Each "platz" offers food, music and activities reflecting a different theme. Four indoor concert series offer other venues for chamber, classical, and sacred music.

We encourage you to visit all the Musikfest sites to fully experience our festival, our hospitality and our beautiful City of Bethlehem.

AMERICAPLATZ America Place

Visitors have the opportunity to listen to the great sounds of bluegrass, jazz and big band music, while enjoying a dish of crab cakes, fruit salad or other regional American dishes. Located on the beautiful plaza at Bethlehem's City Center, Church and New Streets, Americaplatz offers a breathtaking view of South Mountain. The site is open noon to 11 p.m. on weekends and 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays.

ASA PACKER CONCERT SERIES

Come and listen to fine choral works in this indoor series, held at Packer Memorial Church, Lehigh University. Performances include the Bach Choir of Bethlehem at 8 pm on August 10 and the Musikfest Chorus at 4pm on August 11. Tickets are $8.00. Advance ticket purchases are suggested. Please note: shuttle service is not available between the festival and Packer Memorial Church. Free parking is available at Lehigh University.

BLUMENPLATZ Flower Place

Music is the main attraction at Musikfest, but Blumenplatz offers visitors a quiet escape to admire a gorgeous landscape of original floral sculptures. A core of Musikfest flower volunteers transform an 81-foot by 23-foot garden into a grand floral display. Blumenplatz is located directly behind the Bethlehem Area Public Library, near Americaplatz.

CANDLELIGHT CONCERTS

The Musikfest Candlelight Concert series offers eight different concerts where regionally and nationally known performers showcase their work in a variety of musical styles. Held in Foy Concert Hall, these performances begin each evening at 6 p.m. from August 10 - 17. Candlelight Concerts offer a chance for serious appreciation, without distraction or interruption, in an intimate, formal setting. Foy Hall is located in the Moravian College Center for Music and Art, south on Main Street. Tickets for each of these concerts are $8.00. Candlelight Concerts are also supported in part by a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.

CHAMBER SERIES

The Chamber Series offers instrumental and recital performances. This free concert series is held in the historic Old Chapel behind Central Moravian Church, near Heckewelder Place. Concerts begin weekday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

FAMILIENPLATZ Family Place

Familienplatz offers visitors the opportunity to enjoy valuable moments with friends, a spouse, or children. At its location on the Broad Street pedestrian mall, Familienplatz offers visitors a chance to sit and listen to jazz, folk and acoustic music. Site hours are noon to 11 p.m. daily.

FESTPLATZ Festival Place

Since 1984, visitors have been dancing to polka music and doing "The Chicken Dance" at Festplatz. Listen to favorite local and regional polka bands, and sample a variety of German culinary delights. The guest German band this year is Musikverein Statkapelle Schwabisch Gmund. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, "Festers" can also enjoy different dance music. Located on Spring Street, under the Hill-To-Hill Bridge, Festplatz is open daily from noon to 11 p.m.

HANDWERKPLATZ Craft Place

Craftspeople will display and sell a variety of handmade traditional craft items in Historic Bethlehem's 18th Century Moravian Industrial Quarter (across the Monocacy Creek from Festplatz). Craft demonstrations will take place at this site daily. Musikfest invites you to enjoy this historic site as well as the foods from vendors who will add to the ambience. Handwerkplatz site hours are noon to 11 p.m.

KINDERPLATZ Children's Place

Located on the grassy island between Spring and Lehigh Streets, Kinderplatz will present an interactive playhouse featuring a "dress-up" backyard circus, clowns, jugglers, storytellers and a host of performers, plus a souvenir craft activities tent, to keep children enthralled. Musikfest invites you to "be a kid again" at Kinderplatz, open from noon to 8 p.m. daily. Parents take note: Kinderplatz is for the whole family to enjoy. Please do not leave your child unattended. Thanks!

MUSIKFEST BANDSTAND

Located near Kinderplatz between Spring and Lehigh Streets, the bandstand is the spot to learn new dances, such as clogging, country line dancing, danse orientale and other folk dances, each afternoon at 5:30 p.m. Beginning at 7:30 p.m., enjoy a distinct dance band each night, playing polka, rock, reggae and more. Bandstand hours are 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. daily.

KUNSTPLATZ Art Place

Kunstplatz offers free performances by headline entertainers at the Bethlehem Community Arts Pavilion, located behind Moravian College's Church Street Campus (south of Main Street). The pavilion, donated by Bethlehem Steel Corporation to the City of Bethlehem in 1980, commemorates the company's 75th anniversary. It symbolizes Bethlehem Steel's long-standing tradition of commitment to the Bethlehem community.

All Kunstplatz concerts are free and begin each evening at 7:30 and guests may bring folding chairs and blankets, or stand and sway to the music. A limited number of tickets for general admission seating in front of the stage will be available for purchase. Admission to this area ranges from $6 to $10, depending on the concert. (See "Concert Tickets" under the Where to Find section, beginning on page 2, for more information.)

LIEDERPLATZ Song Place

Located behind the 1758 Sun Inn is Liederplatz, a lovely brick-paved courtyard which Musikfest transforms into an outdoor cabaret. Visitors can sit at an umbrella or picnic table, relax, and enjoy American and European folk songs, standards, blues and other musical styles. Site hours are noon to 11 p.m. On Sunday, August 18, the site will close at 9 p.m.

MAIN STREET MUSIKFEST

Musikfest is proud to present Main Street Musikfest, offering three performance areas. Visitors can listen to the melodies of an instrumental ensemble, an a capella group or a solo artist. Main Street Musikfest creates a natural bridge between the eastern (Familienplatz) and western ends (Festplatz and Volksplatz) of the festival. It is also the place for visitors to enjoy shopping in a variety of specialty stores. The site is open 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays and noon to 11 p.m. on weekends. On Sunday, August 18, this site will close at 10 p.m.

MURALPLATZ Mural Place

In 1984, a creative individual began painting a mural on a vacant, boarded building on Main Street... and thus, Muralplatz was born. Today, artists create original paintings on 4' x 8' panels in the area located beside the 1749 Moravian Pottery Wall at Main Street and Ohio Road. Muralplatz features a different artist each day from August 10 - 17 who will create work based on the theme, "Bethlehem Past & Present." Stop and watch gifted artists creating beauty for the eye.

STREET PERFORMERS

At Musikfest, our street performers specialize in making sure our visitors have a good time. In the best tradition of city festivals everywhere, Musikfest street performers appear at various times and different areas throughout the festival site in historic Bethlehem. Street performances include jugglers, magicians, ensembles, trios and quartets. So keep your eyes open and your ears tuned for an amusing surprise!

VESPER CONCERTS

In this sacred music series, choral groups, trios and ensembles are featured from August 12 to August 16 at Central Moravian Church, Main and Church Streets. Concerts are free and begin at 5 p.m.

VOLKSPLATZ People Place

Volksplatz offers visitors an area to appreciate delicious ethnic foods and enjoy intriguing international music. Performances are held under a large tent where visitors can sit and listen to Latin, reggae, African and Celtic music while enjoying Mexican, Middle Eastern, Filipino or Italian dishes. Musikfest continues its tradition of showcasing the diverse ethnic cultures of our community. Experience the world through music at this site, located in Johnston Park, from noon to 11 p.m. daily.

MURALPLATZ ARTISTS

RICHARD LAUBACH

Richard is a graduate of Penn State University, where he received his B.S. in Art Education. He has taken continuing education courses at the Baum School of Art, Northampton Community College, Kutztown University and Barnstone Studios. His watercolor portraits are most influenced by the Art Nouveau and Symbolist movements. Richard is fascinated by their use of design, detail, repetition of form and the use of representational idiom.

His work has been displayed at The Galerie in Allentown and at The Artisan in Bethlehem. Richard describes his art as a realistic and decorative move towards capturing the essence of the subject. He resides in Bethlehem. Sat., August 10

MARA LESTA BERTOIA

Following graduation from UCLA with a BA in Liberal Arts, Mara spent time in 26 different countries absorbing various world cultures. Her exposure to the history of painting was through her grandfather, W.R. Valentiner, curator of the Raleigh and Detroit museums of art, as she was never formally trained in the field of art. The greatest impact on her own involvement in art came from her father, sculptor, chair designer and monoprint maker Harry Bertoia.

Mara finds the motivation behind her paintings is to communicate through visual poems the secret language of the soul as it strives to understand its own innocence and wisdom. Her drive is to create mirrors or windows through which the timeless spirit behind all cultures can spark a remembrance of who we really are.

In her mural, Mara uses symbols from the Walum Olum or Red Record, and other Native American images. She incorporates the hills of Bethlehem in the background, and uses animal symbols of the three clans of the area: turtle, turkey and wolf. Sun., August 11

DAVID B. SULLIVAN

David grew up in Bethlehem and currently resides here. A self-taught artist, he began his career in high school, winning three first place awards for his editorial cartoons. He has since won other awards, including several at Bethlehem Fine Arts Commission Shows.

Working mostly in pen and ink, his style is realistic and rich with detail. His true passion is continuing the work of Dutch graphic artist M.C. Escher (1898-1972). David has studied Escher's work and recently unlocked the intriguing mysteries of his technique known as "regular division of the plane." The division allows a specific shape or figure to be endlessly repeated within a plane, leaving no empty spaces in between each other.

For his mural, David created an example of this technique, incorporating a colorful array of pipers. Each piper plays a role of balance, harmony and synchronization, culminating in a visual symphony. Mon., August 12

JANET A. KOVALCHICK

A Bethlehem native and freelance artist, Janet holds a BA in Fine Arts from Moravian College and accepts commissions in watercolor, oil, pen and ink, and pencil. She is influenced by the magnificent realistic landscapes of the Hudson River School and of the Dutch Masters. Janet also follows the methods of the Impressionists and Post-Impressionists who allowed their colors to mingle in the eyes of the viewers. Her style is additionally influenced by contemporary sources, including teachers and mentors.

For the Musikfest 96 mural, she chose to feature the unique architectural styles of the many buildings in Bethlehem. Her mural depicts "Bethlehem's Past and Present" by showing the mingling of restored historic buildings and those which are modern and industrialized. Janet shows buildings from both the North and South sides of Bethlehem. The Germanic style of the Moravians is evident in the Luckenbach Mill, Central Moravian Church and the Bell House. The multi-storied Hotel Bethlehem and the glass and steel of the City Center and Public Library reflect the architectural trends of the 20th century.

This collage of styles is symbolic of the successful blending of Bethlehem's Past and Present, the cultural diversity of our city as well as a link to future generations. Tues., August 13

GINNY MAIR HARRY

A native Pennsylvanian, Ginny was trained in art at the picnic table of her first and much loved teacher, her mother. Educated at William Allen High, she later went on to study graphic design at Carnegie Mellon University where she discovered an interest in calligraphy. She received her BFA from the University of Oklahoma and returned to Pennsylvania in 1972.

For her Bethlehem mural, Ginny incorporates a familiar star quilt design to show the interrelated aspects of the past and future of the city. Various blocks of the "quilt" represent the strengths of the city: the landscape and architectural heritage; the enduring spiritual ideals of the many religious faiths and the rich production of the arts. The stars are portraits of past ethnic ancestors and the new diversity that makes the fabric of Bethlehem. Different blocks are interlocked with helping hands of unity. Wed., August 14

JANET LAMARCO

Janet has a diverse art background. She studied art at the Padas Studio School of Art and received a BA in Art History from Mansfield University. She worked an Assistant Curator of Fine Art at the State Museum in Harrisburg. Currently, she is the Art Director for Hanover Fairs USA, Inc., organizer of the USA Pavilions in international trade exhibitions.

The subject of her mural is the strength, hard work and hope that helps Bethlehem to survive. Ancestors of Bethlehemites are represented by the broken angel statue. Strength is shown in the building, old yet sound. Work is symbolized in the wheel and molten iron. The Star of Bethlehem is the bright future, held by the hand of a child. Thurs., August 15

NOEL LEAS

Noel shows in his work a fascination for and a kindred with animals. Whether real or imaginary, extant or extinct, animals have inspired his work for a long time. All of the animals in his work show their spirit, vitality and expressiveness. He believes all animals have feelings, intelligence and personalities of their own, and he tries to bring that out in his work. Fri., August 16

W.S. BIVANS

This Chicago native now resides in Emmaus, Pa. He has been painting in oils for nearly 20 years. His interest in art manifested at an early age. At 17, Parson's School of Design in NYC selected him to receive a scholarship for promising young artists.

In 1972, W.S. received his BFA from Kansas City Art Institute where he studied under some of Europe's well-known proponents of the Swiss graphic design theory. He became an art director for leading creative advertising agencies in Chicago, then moved to New York in 1976 to work for the Madison Avenue firm, Dancer-Fitzgerald-Sample.

W.S. has developed a style impressionistic in nature, but which also incorporates a unique approach to color and symbology. His mural subject is an old gas lamp on Bethlehem's Main Street, looking west at sunset, with the contrail from a jet glowing in the sky behind. Sat., August 17

We shot this photograph without using film.

It's Digital Photography.
Without hassles that come with film processing, you save both time and money. Our software is state-of-the-art, allowing the photo to be edited, altered, even combined with other photos giving you greater control over the final image.

Digital Photography allows true interactivity between art director, photographer and photo buyer. Digital photography also makes image storage and retrieval simple. And the whole process speeds up—without rush charges! We are the only fully digital imaging studio in the Lehigh Valley. Call us today to find out more about this unique service. We'll give you a live demo. It may change, forever, the way you buy photography.
