

Hammond Jr., Joseph I,

MARIANNE H. CLAYTON
BRIDE OF NAVAL MAN

6-27-1942

Married to Lt. Joseph I. Hammond in Holy Infancy Rectory.

The marriage of Miss Marianne Hollis Clayton, daughter of Mrs. David I. Clayton of 735 Delaware Avenue, and the late Mr. Clayton, to Lt. Joseph I. Hammond, Jr., U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Hammond of Richmond Hill, Long Island, took place this morning at 9:00 in the rectory of the Holy Infancy Church. Rev. A. Bennett Conway performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, A. David Clayton, wore a pink Summer wool suit and hat, mahogany-color accessories and a white orchid corsage. Miss Margaret Jane Clayton, who was maid-of-honor for her sister, was attired in a gray and white dress with tangerine-color accessories and a corsage of roses.

Lt. Samuel M. Grafton, U. S. A., of Brooklyn, N. Y. served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served the immediate families at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride was graduated from Bethlehem High School and has been employed in the office of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Lt. Hammond was graduated from Lehigh University where he was elected to the Scabbard and Blade honorary military fraternity and was a member of the Theta Kappa Phi fraternity. He is now attached to the New York Ordnance Division.

On their return from a wedding trip to Loon Lake, Rangeley, Maine, the couple will be at home at 52 Gramercy Park, North, New York City after July 10.
