

Mesko, Nick
Anne

Brother and Sister Promoted

WL 31 1944

News of the almost simultaneous advancement in rank of a daughter and a son, both in the armed forces, stationed overseas in areas far apart, came today to Mr. and Mrs. Emel Mesko, of 1711 East Second Street.

Lt. Anne (Mesko) O'Rorke, a graduate of Liberty High School and St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing, entered the U. S. Army Nurse Corps December 3, 1940. In Jan., 1942, she shipped overseas, at present being stationed in New Guinea. Her husband, Lieut. Andrew W. O'Rorke, Jr., who served for eight years in the U. S. Marine Corps, lost his life in the Southwest Pacific area February 8, 1944.

Sergeant Nick Mesko, brother of Lieutenant O'Rorke, has been in the armed forces one year today. After a brief furlough in October 1943, he left for overseas duty. He is now serving somewhere in Hawaii.

Jul. 31, 1944