

Uhl, William F.

Henry
Charles

Leo William

8-3-1942

THE BET

MANNING P. T. BOAT 50-CALIBRE GUN—William F. Uhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Uhl, Bethlehem R. D. 4, Bingen-Hellertown Road, is seen manning a 50-calibre gun in a specially designed turret aboard a P. T. boat in waters somewhere off Panama. Uhl has been four years in the U. S. Navy and at present holds the rating of torpedo man, first class. He received his education in the local schools. A brother, Lieutenant Henry Uhl, has been in the U. S. Army for 10 years and at present is stationed in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. Another brother, Charles, also served a hitch with Uncle Sam and is now at home. A cousin, Leo William Uhl, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uhl, 822 Carlton Avenue, has enlisted in the Navy and is awaiting a call to duty. The accompanying picture was sent to the Globe-Times by Oscar W. Osvatics, Wydnor, seaman, second class, U. S. N., and was published in the newspaper Trinidad Guardian, Trinidad, B. W. I., on July 31.

August 5, 1942