

Fritchman, James W.

SCOTT FELD GRADUATE

Pfc. James W. Fritchman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Fritchman, 76 Clearfield st., Freemansburg, Pa., has just been graduated from the parent radio school of the Air Forces Technical Training command at Scott Field, Ill., according to an announcement by Brig. Gen. Wolcott P. Hayes, post commander. During the intensive training period at Scott Field, R. T. Fritchman received instruction in radio operation and mechanics and is now qualified for duty as a member of a fighting bomber crew. MAR 24 1943

Since Scott Field, part of the vast network of the Technical Training Command schools under Maj. Gen. R. Weaver, is devoted solely to radio the destination of Pfc. Fritchman may be a more advanced radio school, a gunnery school or an operational training school, where he will receive instructions as part of a bombing "team."
