Of Active Duty

Technical Sergeant Royce P. Frankenfield, 28 East Ettwein Street, has served 25 months active duty overseas with the AAF's oldest medium bomber group, which has been cited by the President for "outstanding performance of duty in armed conflict with the enemy," during a January 13 mission over Rome Ciampino North and South Airdromes in preparation for Allied landings.

Sgt. Frankenfield wears the blue and gold framed Distinguished Unit Badge, the only Army award worn. His is the only group in the AAF. He is in the only group in the AAF to supply personnel to bomb Tokio, Rome and Germany and, as the citation mentions, flew 215 missions between January 1, 1944 to July 31, 1944.
