

Two-banger at City Council tomorrow night — Wednesday, November 6, Town Hall — 6PM & 7PM

The Bethlehem Gadfly City government November 5, 2019

Our next City Council meeting — the “face” of Bethlehem City government — occurs tomorrow night Wednesday, November 6, Town Hall, at 7PM.

And before that regularly scheduled meeting, City Council will meet at 6PM as a Committee of the Whole to discuss the Capital Plan. Follow the link to Gadfly’s earlier notice of this important meeting. Good stuff.

These meetings are video-recorded and can be viewed LIVE or later at your convenience on the City’s website after the meeting at <https://www.bethlehem-pa.gov/Calendar>.

The YouTube channel for live or archive viewing is “City of Bethlehem Council.”

- The report of the Community Development Committee regarding CDBG funding that we have been following will be of interest.
- We can see some signs of movement on Northside 2027.
- A resolution on a Federal Medicare for All Act — Gadfly wonders what that’s all about.
- The parking fine proposal is up for a vote.
- What do you see of interest?

The important document for the Committee of the Whole meeting is here: 2020-2024 Capital Plan. Worth a good long look.

As always, as long as he has flutter in his wings, Gadfly urges attending City Council live or virtually — one way or the other.

Be informed.
