Capt. Staffieri JUN
Home On Furlough 9 1943

Captain Leonard Staffieri, U. S. Coast Artillery, is spending a 15-day furlough with his family at 804 East Fifth Street. Stationed at a base in California, he made the trip eastward by plane.

As an officer in the 213th Coast Artillery, he left Bethlehem with that unit in September, 1940, and has since been in active service. On his return to his base his command may be sent into one of the combat zones in the South Pacific.
