

Ache, Warren W.

Warren W. Ache Is Now a Captain In Pacific Sector

JUL 19 1943
Warren W. Ache, of 220 Main Street, Hellertown, was recently promoted to the rank of captain in the Ordnance Department of the U. S. Army, according to a letter received by Mrs. Ache, the former Miss Pauline Ruch, also of Hellertown.

Captain Ache entered active service January 23, 1941 at Aberdeen

CAPT. WARREN W. ACHE

Proving Ground, Md. He was stationed for some time at Camp Hulen, Tex., prior to his embarkation for overseas duty. Since February, 1942, he has been stationed in the Southwest Pacific Area, where he is assigned to a Headquarters Unit.

He was graduated from Lehigh University in 1940 as a metallurgist. Prior to his leaving for active service with the army, he had been a looper at the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Mrs. Ache and their son reside with Captain Ache's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Ache, at the same address.

Jul 19, 1943