

Yeakel, Walter F.

Nazareth Soldier
Back From Overseas 1945

Sgt. Walter F. Yeakel, son of Frank R. Yeakel, 307 South Green Street, Nazareth, arrived home on Tuesday for the first time in 29 months. Sgt. Yeakel is serving with the Marines and saw much action in the Central Pacific area. He was overseas for more than 19 months, serving continually in combat areas.

He arrived in San Francisco on March 15, and stated that he was glad to set foot on United States soil again and was very happy to be back in Nazareth. He will be home until April 27, and hopes to see all his friends before returning to a redistribution center.
