

Walter, Charles G.

Gets Merit Award At Ordnance School

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md.—Sgt. Charles G. Walter of the Ordnance School Battalion, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland, has been awarded a Certificate of Merit by Col. M. E. Wilson, commandant of the Ordnance School, for his suggestion giving rise to the adoption of a course in blackboard sketching as a teaching aid in developmental instruction. In addition, Sgt. Walter was awarded a three-day pass for this, his second suggestion given recognition by the Ordnance School.

Sgt. Walter, who has served two years overseas in the African and Italian theaters of operations, is the recipient of the coveted Legion of Merit. He is the son of Mrs. Mary S. Walter, 89 West Garrison Street, Bethlehem. His wife, the former Miss Carol Freystadt, now resides at Douglastown, Long Island, N. Y.

Apr. 17, 1945