

Gross Jr., Robert R.

Advances

Robert R. Gross Jr., son of Motorcycle Officer and Mrs. Robert R. Gross of 27 West Fairview Street, has been advanced to the rank of Fireman Second Class, according to information received by his parents. A graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School, he enlisted in the U. S. Navy on March 17, 1943, and received his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. He was subsequently transferred to the Philadelphia Navy Yard and then to active duty. At present he is "somewhere in the Southwest Pacific." Before joining the combat forces he was employed in No. 4 machine shop, of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
