

Mahoney, Robert

Draft Board <sup>SEP 24</sup> 1943 No. 2 Sends Group To Armed Forces

Seventy-five of the 126 men accepted yesterday for the armed services at the Allentown Induction Center were from Bethlehem City Board No. 2. Most of the remainder were from Schuylkill Board No. 6, which has its headquarters in Pottsville.

Taken into the Navy from the Bethlehem board were: Robert J. Mahoney, Leonard J. Domyan, Raymond B. Yard, Robert J. Dubbs, Richard A. Melloy, Davis J. Crowell, George W. Baum, John P. Pharo, August G. Zart, Harold L. Becker, Amedeo Arbizzani, Lawrence E. Noll.

James B. Gregory, William A. Hartnett, Jr., Clarence W. Behler, Charles J. Glassmeyer, Kenneth H. Seifert, Warren J. Keim, Brand G. Krueger, Steven J. Roumeliotes, William H. Burns, Charles F. Burns, John J. Sinnott, Austin G. Reiman, James R. Burns, Stephen Vitez, Elwood F. Clewell, Jr., Andrew F. Gross, Donald J. Shive, Walter S. Diefenderfer, Richard W. Frey, Kenneth F. Haldeman.

From the Bethlehem board Joseph Keblesh and Donald K. Dutt were accepted for the Marines, and James B. Moyer and Raymond J. Fejes were taken in the Coast Guard.

George Pall Jr., George L. Peters and Stephen F. Scrak Jr., of the Bethlehem board and George N. Sanders of Easton Board 1 were accepted as Aviation Cadets.

The following men from the Bethlehem board will report to the Army at New Cumberland after their furloughs: Edward W. Gorman Jr., William B. Smith, John R. Snell, Perry Laster, James G. Parry Martin E. Seifert, Thomas F. Keim, Cortland J. Knipe, Samuel G. Cann, John E. Lance.

Leonard V. Siegfried, Charles E. Parfitt, Allen S. Bender, Robert R. Strohl, Joseph H. Hughes, Glenn E. Steyers, Victor C. Apgar, Jr., Russel C. Stocker, John F. Burcaw Jr., Robert J. Fissel, LeMar M. Gearhart, Richard E. Szulborski.

Michael J. Sedli, David G. Nicholas, Francis J. Phillippi Jr., Morris A. Brunner Jr., Donald A. Snyder, Robert R. Stocker, John H. Traeger, Norman M. Kincaid, Ralph H. Strock, Llewellyn A. Remaly, Gordon J. Fiegel, Robert L. Harpel.

Sep. 24, 1943