

Carroll, Walter C

COUNTY SENDS LARGE GROUP INTO ARMY

SEP 21 1942

Inducted Saturday Selected by Boards at Nazareth and Bangor.

The U. S. Army Saturday inducted 116 selectees into service at the Allentown Induction Center, all of them but one being residents of Northampton County. The lone "outsider" was Howard Price, drafted from Norristown City Board No. 1.

Saturday, First Lieutenant Walter C. Carroll, sent seven of the boys inducted directly to Fort George G. Meade, Md. They are Charles W. Beerhalter, Julius J. Mocidlowski, Stanley Specialny, James W. Munson, Eugene H. Moyer, Stephen M. Barna, and Charles R. Steifel.

Of the 108 men who decided to go home on two-week furloughs, 61 are representatives of Northampton County Board 1, the Bangor area, and 47 of Northampton County Board 3, the Nazareth sector.

Bangor area men who go to New Cumberland following their furloughs are William J. Housden, Milo L. Yeane, Nelson G. R. Searfass, Jr., Fred Farace, Harvey E. Kessler, John W. Bruch, Lawrence Petrei, Griffith J. Ambrose, John G. Achterman, Joseph Casciano, Edward F. Gigliotti, Frederick Bittenbender, Albert Liberto, Levio L. Uliano, John Hoenshelt; Patsy Cerulli, Lewis W. Zeman, John Derkac, Jonah G. Hendershot, Arthur T. Amy, Paul L. Labar, Clayton J. Clapp, Fred Russo, Kenneth L. Hess, John W. Hewett, Everett E. Smale, Anthony Cascioli, Martin L. Buskirk, Jr., Etalo P. Breseancine, John E. Williams, Lewis Malpedo, William V. Phillips; John Stampone, Earl W. Vough, Robert P. Herring, Charles Verrona, Robert E. Van Horn, Paul D. Owens, Earl H. Yerk, Henry T. East, Howard G. Marsh, Raymond J. Azzalini, William S. Herd, Samuel A. Patti, Onofrio Capobianco, Emory W. Dietz, John Scarlese, Paul W. Breen and Ernest Catino.

Those from Northampton Board No. 1 assigned to Fort Meade are: Ralph L. Peters, Stanley T. Wagner, Anthony DeCesare, Jr., Emery Bysher, Peter Manento, Michael A. Romano, Elwood J. Strouse, Harold H. Young, Francis D. Ninno, Robert W. Brown, William H. Kessler and Leo C. Antonioli.

Nazareth area men who are going to Fort Meade are: George E. Kichline, Robert B. Bachman, Jr., Frank P. Kositz, Louis Marroni, James W. Fritchman, Donald R. Rohn, Michael G. Fulop, Allen C. Wimmer, Roy B. James, Peter Pokotello, Clarence H. Schaeffer, Jr., Charles S. Gostonyi, John E. Kern and John E. Stofan;

Stephen J. Gensitz, Warren E. Dech, Albert R. Kemmerer, Arthur E. West, Wilbert J. Wagner, Kenneth E. Werkheiser, Raymond C. Youngkin, Jr., Leonard H. Horne, Ralph C. J. Rissmiller, Sebastian C. Bauer, Ulysses F. Klump, Cyrus A. Hine, Peirson D. Schoenberger, Leon L. Arndt, George H. D. Hoffman, Edward Klusko and Jacob H. Paulus.

The men from this region who will begin Army life at New Cumberland are: Ray J. Teel, Robert A. Heyer, George F. Frack, Marne T. Hahn, Clyde H. Hess, Alex D. Cummings, Frank S. Roberts, Thomas B. Frederickson, Walter G. Kopfer, Michael Warner, John T. Strobl, Silvio A. Antonelli, Leonard Reiser, Kenneth W. Schleicher, Joseph Babos and Eugene Stoitsitz.

Sep. 21, 1942