1944 Brothers Promoted

KENNETH BLOSS

CHARLES BLOSS

Two brothers, Charles and Kenneth Bloss, sons of Mrs. Verna and the late Charles Bloss, Hellertown, are both in the U. S. Navy and have been advanced in rank. The former has been promoted to the rank of Petty Officer Signalman Second Class; the latter to Fireman Third Class. Charles enlisted on February 3, 1941, while he was a sophomore at Hellertown High School. He received his boot training at Norfolk and was later transferred to Norton Heights, Conn. During his service in the Navy he has traveled around the world. At present he is at a West Coast base. His brother, Kenneth, was inducted into the armed forces last March. Before entering the country's service, he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. His wife is the former Virginia Schwartz, of this city.
