

Redline, John G.

Nazareth Brothers Promoted

AUG 3 1944

LIEUT. JOHN G. REDLINE

S 1-C WILLIAM REDLINE

Two Nazareth brothers serving in the Army and Navy received promotions recently. They are Lieut. John G. Redline, Jr., who was promoted to First Lieutenant in Italy from the rank of Second Lieutenant, and Seaman 1-c William Redline, who was promoted from the grade of Seaman 2-c. The men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Redline, 210 Mauch Chunk Street, Nazareth.

Lieut. Redline received his promotion in Italy where he is stationed at the present time. He has completed 24 missions as a bombardier and navigator.

Lieut. Redline received his training at Avon Park, Fla., Salt Lake City, Utah, San Angelo, Texas, and was sent overseas from Langley Field, Va., on May 1, 1944. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Corps at San Angelo, Texas, Army Air Field, in June, 1943.

He is a graduate of Nazareth High school, class of 1939, and was captain of the high school football team, an undefeated team. He attended the University of Pennsylvania and Lehigh University. Prior to his enlistment in the Air Corps he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He is 23 years of age.

His brother, Seaman 1-c William Redline, 19, was inducted in the U.S.N.R., on June 24, 1943, having been graduated from Nazareth High school on June 17 of that year. He too, played football on an undefeated team and also played basketball.

He received his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and was stationed at Philadelphia, Pa., for a brief period. He was sent to the South Pacific in January of this year where he saw action at Truk Island, New Guinea and Hollandia.

Seaman Redline returned to the State recently and is at San Francisco, Cal., at the present time. He expects to come home shortly on a leave.
