

Sabatine, Phillip

Soldier From Roseto
Killed In Italy FEB 14 1945

Mrs. Anthony C. Sabatine, 747 Roseto Street, Roseto, received a telegram last evening stating that her son, Sergeant Phillip Sabatine, had been killed in Italy February 1.

A tail-gunner on a B-24, he was 20 years of age. He was inducted in August, 1943, and trained at Amarillo Field, Texas, before going overseas in November, 1944.

Surviving are two sisters at home, Marie and Jean, his maternal grandfather, Michael Capone, and his parents.

February 14, 1945