Norman G. Grogg, 33, of 225 South New Street, Nazareth, has the distinction of being the first World War II veteran of this vicinity to join the Harold V. Knecht American Legion Post 415, through the amendment to the national legion charter which was effected last Summer.

NORMAN GROGG

Grogg was honorably discharged from the Army due to a leg injury. He was inducted into the service on June 26, 1941, and was sent to New Cumberland, where he remained for a period of a week and then was sent to Camp Wheeler, Ga.

At Camp Wheeler, Grogg did landscape gardening at the headquarters detachment and also spent several days each week in the office. After three months at Camp Wheeler his injury necessitated his return to his home in Nazareth, where he remained for several months and was then sent to a hospital in Baltimore, Md., for a period of three weeks. He then received his honorable discharge from the Army.

Grogg is the son of the late George Grogg and Mrs. Earl Frantz, of Nazareth. He was employed as a landscape gardener for a period of nine years prior to his induction and has also had his own business in this field. He is an active member of the Vigilance Hose Company, Nazareth. At the present time, he is employed at the Nazareth Steel Fabricators.
