

Hochella, William H.

William H. Hochella

Becomes Ensign

NOV 1 1944

William H. Hochella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hochella, 448 East Goepp Street, was graduated from the U. S. Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School, October 26, 1944, in Navy Drill Hall on the campus of the University of Notre Dame, Indiana.

Graduating as an ensign, USNR, he was one of approximately 850 men who have successfully completed the four months training as a Midshipman. The exercises were highlighted by an address of Vice Admiral Randall Jacobs, Chief of the Bureau of Naval Personnel.
