

Mosko, John
Joseph

Local Soldier Now Prisoner In Nazi Camp

AUG 16 1944

Mrs. Julia Mosko, 907 Evans Street, received information from the War Department telling her that her son, Pfc. John Mosko, is a prisoner of war in Germany. He had previously been interned in a prison camp in Italy, but when our invasion forces liberated the area in which he was held, he was taken to Germany.

Pfc. Mosko was inducted in February, 1940, and has been in England, Scotland, North Africa and Italy. He is a member of SS. Cyril and Methodius parish and was well known for his sports. Before his induction, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

A brother, Joseph Mosko is with the Air Corps in England.
