

Marshall, William M.
George
William

In Service Two Years

Pvt. William M. Marshall, husband of the former Ruth Weidner, Wydnor, has completed two years service in the U. S. Army. He enlisted in the Ski Troops and was sent to Camp Hale, Colo. He later was transferred upon request to Fort Benning, Ga., and Camp Forrest, Tenn., where he joined with the 100th Division. He was later moved to Fort Bragg where he was stationed for seven months before going overseas to Italy.

Private Marshall's father, Major William Marshall, is company commander at a prisoner-of-war camp in Maine. A brother, SIC George E. Marshall, is on active duty in the Pacific.

JAN 30 1945

January 30, 1945