

Hill, Richard

Seaman 1-C

JAN 8 1945

Recently advanced to the rank of Seaman First Class, Richard Hill, U.S. Navy, observed a dual event today. One year ago he was inducted into the armed forces, and today he celebrated his birthday. He received his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and was subsequently transferred to a base along the Atlantic coast. He is the husband of the former Miss Bettie Danner. At the time of his induction he resided at 530 High Street. He is a graduate of Liberty High School, Class of '37, and was interested in tennis.
