

Loughman, Katherine Marie

Lt. Katherine Loughman
Caring for Casualties
At Navy Hospital

PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—Lieut. Katherine Marie Loughman, (NC) USN, Bethlehem, Pa., is one of the Navy nurses helping to care for casualties of the Pacific war. She is stationed at one of the U. S. naval hospitals here.

Lieut. Loughman is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Loughman of 433 South 21st. Street, Easton. She received her training at Sacred Heart Hospital, Allentown, and was working at Memorial Hospital, Morristown, N. J., at the time of her enlistment. Prior to coming overseas she was serving at naval hospitals in Brooklyn, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Portsmouth, Va., Edenton, N. C. and Oakland Cal. AUG 20 1945

August 22, 1945