

Thornburg, Robert H.

Corporal

Robert H. Thornburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thornburg Jr., has advanced from Pfc. to Corporal. He entered the service in July, 1943, and completed his field artillery training at Fort Bragg, N. C., and his armored field artillery training at Camp Campbell, Ky. Cpl. Thornburg has been serving with the Third Army under Gen. Patton since August, 1944.

Cpl. Thornburg was slightly wounded by shrapnel on April 12. He attended Fountain Hill High School and was a student at F. and M. Academy, Lancaster, Pa., when he entered the service. The Corporal holds the Good Conduct Medal.

May 30, 1945