

Hauze, Donald E.

Army Promotion

SEP 11 1945

Stationed aboard a General Hospital Transport at Chalons, France, Donald E. Hauze, son of W. J. Hauze, 1428 Hottle Avenue, was promoted to Private First Class. He was inducted September 15, 1944, and was sent to Camp Blanding, Fla., to receive his basic training. He was later transferred to Fort Meade, Md., from where he was shipped overseas, arriving in France early in March.

Pfc. Hauze is a graduate of Bethlehem High School. Two brothers and a sister are also with the Armed Forces. Richard, stationed with the SHAAF at Salina, Kansas; William Jr., at Victorville, Calif., with the Army Air Force, and Dolores, stationed at Hunter College, New York, with the Waves.

September 11, 1945