

Riland, Jordan A.

CITY, COUNTY MEN AT INDUCTION CENTER

Ninety-Five from Two Local,
Two Easton, One County
Boards Accepted.

SEP 23 1942

Men from five local boards reported for examination and induction at the Allentown Induction Center Tuesday, a total of 95 being accepted for service. Those reporting came from Boards Nos. 2 and 3 in this city, Nos. 1 and 2 at Easton and Northampton County Board No. 4.

Of the total number accepted, 14 elected to go directly to camp, being assigned immediate duty to Fort George G. Meade, Md. They are Jordan A. Riland, Robert S. Laubach, Joseph T. Werzel, Adam E. Yeager, James Del Toro, Kenneth R. Zweifel, Richard R. Little, Elwood J. Berger, Thomas A. Shriver, William A. Wilson, Charles L. Dagostine, John S. Stewart, Benjamin J. O'Brien and Norman D. Sutton.

Six of the Bethlehem City Board No. 2 men will report to Meade following two weeks furlough. They are Joseph H. Vitchkowski, John Zimnis, Clarence J. Kocher, George H. Frank, Jr., Gerald L. Padden and Franklin D. Kaugh. The six men of this board who will report to New Cumberland are Stanley G. Gerhart, Peter T. Amberg, Wesley R. Wilson, Harry E. Cawley, Walter R. Hoffert and Paul H. Ruth.

Six men drafted from Bethlehem Board No. 3 will go to New Cumberland, namely Robert J. Wolfe, Franklin L. Oberly, Warren A. Weaver, Paul V. Hartman, Edward A. O'Shea, and Raymond K. Yohe. Three men of this board assigned to Fort Meade at the expiration of their furlough are Richard C. Hoffert, James J. Peacock and George F. Searfoss.

Thirteen men of Northampton

County Board No. 4 will go to New Cumberland. They are George A. Fisher, Geza Kardos, Joseph Borota, Raymond E. Dietz, John G. Lanski, Henry L. Heimbach, William Ballek, Charles R. Van Emburgh, Robert J. Baba, Petras P. Blika, Lester C. Mengel, Edward J. Smith and Floyd A. Nagel.

The ten men of Northampton Board No. 4 to begin army life at Fort Meade are Reno O. Buss, Humbert Lucketti, Lloyd L. Shick, Willard G. Crane, Miles Spengler, Samuel F. Rissmiller, Richard M. Finney, Edward F. Kita, Quinda J. Pulgini and Harry B. Tenges.

Sep. 23, 1942