

Lewis, William A.

Pfc. William Lewis
With Bomber Crew

JAN 18 1945
Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Lewis, 1120 Mansfield Court, Pembroke Village, have received news from their son, Pfc. William A. Lewis, USMC, in the form of a telegram stating that he had volunteered for dive bomber duty at a Marine Air Corps base in California and that a letter would follow.

Lewis served as a radar-radio machine gunner with the 829th Squadron which flew out from Florida some time ago. He enlisted July 27, 1943, received his boot training at Parris Island, S. C., and left there for radio gunnery school at Jacksonville, Fla., where he graduated in October, 1944.

January 18, 1945