

Macci, Julius

Decorated

Nov 10 1944

Pvt. Julius Macci, son of Mrs. John Macci, Flemington, N. J., was recently decorated for "heroic achievement in action," receiving the Bronze Star Medal.

A former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company, he is serving with the Fifth Army in Italy.

In a recent letter to his mother, Pvt. Macci tells of the "terrible destruction of towns, villages and cities to pulverized rubble" and the "stench of decaying human flesh," the fighting Yanks meet up with every day in Europe. He also told of their victorious entry into Rome. Said Pvt. Macci, "I hope to write my next letter from Berlin."
