

Webb, Lloyd
Harry

Sgt. Lloyd Webb
Back From Europe

Sgt. Lloyd Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, 253 East Goeep Street, recently returned from five months overseas duty in the European theater, where he served with the 97th Infantry Division. Sgt. Webb was inducted February 18, 1942, and after completing basic infantry training at Camp Swift, Tex., and camps in Louisiana and California, he was sent overseas. The sergeant holds the Good Conduct Medal, Combat Infantryman's Badge and his campaign ribbons with three battle participation stars.

Home on a 34-day leave at present, Sgt. Webb will report to Fort Dix, N. J., where he will be assigned to a hospital in North Carolina. His brother, Cpl. Harry Warren Webb, who has been serving since 1940, is stationed in Germany with an anti-aircraft unit.
