

Detweiler, Charles H.

Capt. C. H. Detweiler
Decorated by Army

Capt. Charles H. Detweiler, 453 Carlton Ave., has been awarded the Army Commendation Ribbon, the Ninth Infantry Division headquarters announced today.

Capt. Detweiler, a Medical Administrative Corps officer, was decorated for "outstanding meritorious conduct" displayed as executive of the division surgeon's office, Ninth Infantry, from November 1946 in the European Theater when he supervised and coordinated sick and wounded statistical reports and put into effect administrative policies that govern Medical Department units.

The medical officer is on terminal leave at present, residing with his wife and daughter at the Carlton Ave. address.

September 9, 1946