

Coleman, Ben

Pfc. Ben Coleman
Awaiting Assignment

Pfc. Ben Coleman, brother of Joseph Coleman, 813 West Market Street, is currently stationed at the Camp Butner, N. C., redistribution station, where he will spend two weeks before reporting to his new assignment in the United States.

Pfc. Coleman was returned recently to the States after serving 24 months in the Southwest Pacific as a mail clerk and message center clerk. He holds the Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbon with two campaign stars, and the Distinguished Unit badge. Prior to his service with the Army, Pfc. Coleman was employed as a furniture store manager.

June 21, 1945