

Vito, John

ENJOYING FURLOUGH

Sgt. John Vito, son of Mrs. Angelina Vito, 114 East Mechanic Street, is enjoying a 15-day furlough with his mother and his brother, Charles of Freemansburg. Sgt. Vito is accompanied by his bride of eight months, the former Vivian Louise Wainwright, whom he married in Tampa, Fla., December 3, 1942.

Mrs. Vito is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Wainwright, of Tampa.

Sgt. Vito is stationed at present at the Army Air Base at Zephyr Hills, Fla. He is a veteran of four and one-half years in the Army, having served two years with the Infantry in Panama. He has since been in the Air Force and is a tail gunner in a bomber. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company in the SSR Department.

July 8, 1943