

Krapf, William F.
Krapf, Walter R.

Pfc. William F. Krapf,
Marine, Wounded
In Okinawa Battle

Marine Pfc. William F. Krapf was wounded in action against the enemy on Okinawa April 13, 1945, according to an official telegram received by his mother, Mrs. Frances Krapf, 445 East Fairview Street.

The Marine celebrated his 20th birthday anniversary on Okinawa April 15 and on the 17th of April rounded out three years of service in the corps.

A brother, Pfc. Walter R. Krapf, is stationed somewhere in Germany with an anti-aircraft division.

May 25, 1945