

Agocs, Alfred S.

Springtown Soldier's Romance In England Aided by Home Folks

FEB 17 1945

Mrs. Frank Fisher of the Springtown Hotel has received word from her son, Sgt. Alfred S. Agocs, Army Air Corps, stationed in England, that his engagement to Miss Joan Dowden of Redfield, Bristol, England, has been announced. Their wedding is planned for March, he stated in his letter.

The young man's mother has played cupid's helper, sending many attractive gifts—including hosiery, cosmetics and jewelry—to the young lady, as well as purchasing a diamond engagement ring here and sending it to her son. She is planning, also, for their return home, has purchased a home for them and a business for her son.

Miss Dowden, Sgt. Agocs wrote, is employed in a hospital in Bristol. Sgt. Agocs is a graduate of Liberty High School and was employed in New York City as an automobile mechanic before entering the service on Feb. 27, 1941. He has been overseas nearly four years, stationed for the first three years in Ireland and for the past year in England. He is an aviation mechanic.

Agocs starred in football while at Liberty and was a member of the
