

Fatzinger, Lloyd A.

Lieutenant Lloyd A. Fatzinger, formerly stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., who is visiting his parents on a furlough, attended the meeting of Fountain Hill Post, No. 406, American Legion, last evening and spoke on the new method of army life of today compared with that of the first World War. He is a former captain of Squadron No. 406, Sons of Legionnaires, and also a former captain of Lehigh County Squadron.

SEP 3 1943

Commander George N. Deily was in charge of the meeting. Other officers present were Mark Springer, assistant adjutant; David H. Brown, finance officer, and Thomas LaPenna, assistant chaplain.

It was reported that the membership had remained unchanged from the last meeting, 252.

A card was received from Adjutant Walter C. Wannemacher, who is being treated at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Philadelphia. He stated that he is receiving effective treatment and improvement in his condition is already noted.

September 3, 1943