

Walp, William V.

Radio Man 1-c

APR 27 1944

William V. Walp, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Walp, of 628 South Bergen Street, Fountain Hill, has recently completed the prescribed course of study at Radioman School, USNTS, Bainbridge, Md., and has been advanced to Seaman 1st Class R. M., and has also been recommended for further advancement to Petty Officer Third Class upon assignment. He has volunteered for submarine duty and will be transferred in the near future for further training along those lines. Walp entered the Navy on September 10, 1943, and took his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. Prior to his joining the armed forces, he was employed in the Plant Protection Department of the Industrial Relations Division of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

April 27, 1944