

Adler, Theodore R

Conduct Award

WITH THE 97TH DIVISION, OTA, Japan—Pfc. Theodore R. Adler 1450 High Street, has been awarded the Army's Good Conduct Medal at a Retreat ceremony held here recently. The award was given for fidelity and efficient service with the 97th Division.

During the war in Europe, Pfc. Adler served with Company "D," 387th Infantry Regiment and saw action in the Ruhr Pocket, Western Germany and Czechoslovakia. Among several military ribbons and decorations, he holds the Combat Infantry Badge.

Returning from France in June, he spent a 30-day recuperation furlough with his parents, then sailed for Japan with the 97th—the first veteran ETO combat division to enter Japan.
