

Vough, Raymond

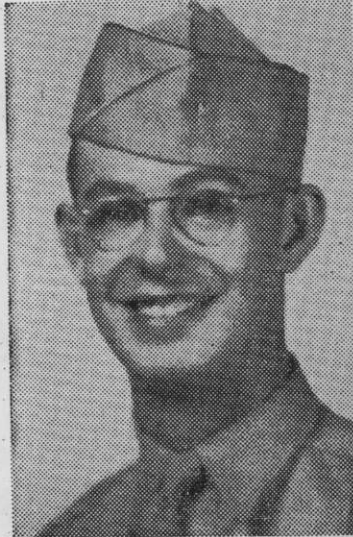

Four from Ackermanville Advance

RAYMOND W. VOUGH

EARL W. VOUGH

CHARLES E. SPEER

OLIVER J. JENNINGS

Ackermanville Soldiers, Sailor Win Promotions

Four Ackermanville service men—three soldiers and a sailor—have advanced in rank.

Charles E. Speer, son of Mrs. Ralph Speer, who was inducted into the Army February 17, 1942, is now a sergeant and on desert maneuvers in California. He received basic training at Camp Polk, La.

Raymond W. Vough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Vough, Bangor R. D. 3, has attained the rank of corporal and also is on desert maneuvers with an armored force unit in California. He also trained at Camp Polk, La.

1943

Earl W. Vough was inducted into the Army October 3, 1942, and has attained the rank of private first class. He received training with a quartermaster unit at Camp Lee, Va., and completed a course in mechanics at Holabird Motor Ordnance base, Holabird, Md. He is now stationed at Tampa, Fla.

Oliver J. Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Jennings, is now a seaman first class. He entered naval service November 12, 1942, and received basic training at Sampson, N. Y. He recently returned from Casablanca after three months foreign service and is now stationed at Baltimore, Md. He was graduated from the armed guard service school at Little Creek, Va.

Jun 1, 1943