

Farleigh, Madge E.

Three Area WAVES Given Discharges At Washington, D. C.

Three area WAVES were discharged from the U. S. Naval Personnel Separation Center at the Naval Barracks, Washington, D. C., March 1. ~~MAR 1 1946~~

Lt. Margaret Kathleen Madden, daughter of J. P. Madden, 352 Ninth Ave., reported for duty in the Navy Oct. 6, 1942. She was last on duty at the Naval Air Station, Cape May, N. J.

Kathryn R. G. Wyshock, hospital apprentice 1/C, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher, 606 Main St., Freemansburg. She reported for duty May 30, 1943, and was last stationed at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Newport, R. I. Her husband is Joseph G. Wyshock of Detroit, Mich.

Madge E. Farleigh Proffitt, seaman 1/C, who reported for naval duty April 6, 1944, was last stationed at WAVE quarters in Washington, D. C. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Farleigh, 509 West Pennsylvania Ave., Pen Argyl.

March 4, 1946