Walnutport Soldier
Visits Brother in Britain Hospital 24 1944

Private Charles Chimich, formerly of Leighton, now in a hospital in England, was pleasantly surprised on October 3, when his brother, Private Andrew Chimich, paid him a visit. The brothers had 18 hours together, after which Andrew returned to his base. Private Charles is convalescing from a leg injury which he received in France July 29.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Chimich Sr., Walnutport. The couple has two other sons overseas. Marine Private Peter is in the South Pacific and Corporal Michael is in New Guinea. Pvt. Frank is in New Cumberland and a son-in-law, Kenneth Stein, is stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass.
