

Wallace, John T.

Pfc. John Wallace
With M. P. Outfit
"Watch On Rhine"

JUN 28 1945

"Watch on the Rhine" may well be called the role the 508th Military Police Battalion is playing in the occupation of the Rhineland. Attached to the XXII Corps, commanded by Major General E. N. Harmon, the battalion is responsible for the security of the bridges across the Rhine and for control of traffic across those bridges.

The Battalion, of which Pfc. John

T. Wallace Jr., Bethlehem R. 4, is a member, was activated at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., March 20, 1944 and by the time its first birthday had rolled around, it had served in four foreign countries—England, France, Belgium and Germany.

Some of the bridges guarded by Wallace might be called "shrines" of the American Army for they are named for individuals who died in this war.

June 28; 1945