Dale R. Reichley Returns to Duty

Dale R. Reichley, yeoman, third class, has returned by plane to the Central Pacific after a 30-day leave with his wife, Virginia, of Easton, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reichley, 1216 Wood Street, this city.

Included in his 30-day leave were two important events, his third wedding anniversary, which was August 8, and V-J Day.

During the 16 months that he has been on active duty overseas he has participated in the invasions of Guam, Tinian, Saipan, Iwo Jima, Okinawa and he was also at Leyte. He served as yeoman on the flagship of Admiral Turner, commander of the amphibious forces of the Pacific. He has had many experiences with Jap suicide planes and suicide boats.
