

Gorman Jr., Edward W.
William

Sets Record

Awards and promotions come in bunches—or so it would seem if you examined Cpl. Edward W. Gorman Jr.'s Army record during the past 90 days.

Cpl. Gorman received two promotions, first from private to private first class and then to corporal, and within the same period, was awarded his third and fourth Bronze Stars, the Good Conduct medal and the Philippine Liberation ribbon.

Corporal Gorman is entering his fourteenth month in the Pacific Theatre with the Fifth Air Force. He celebrates his 20th birthday anniversary the 24th of this month. Before entering the service the corporal was employed by Tom Young, 310 West Broad Street. He also attended Bethlehem Technical High School. His brother, Pvt. William Gorman, is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., at present. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Gorman, 815 Main Street.

June 19, 1945