

Damico, Benjamin

Roseto GI Arrives,
Assigned in Italy APR 16 1946

Pvt. Benjamin Damico, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Damico, Dante St., Roseto, has arrived in Naples, Italy, and been assigned to the 337th Quartermaster Depot Company, a unit of the Peninsular Base Section, the Army Service Force in Italy.

After arrival in the port, Pvt. Damico was transferred to the Seventh Replacement Depot for processing. Within 36 hours, he boarded a train to Leghorn where he is awaiting transportation to his assigned unit. Pvt. Damico was a student before entering the Army, June 19, 1945.

Gran Quivira National Monument in New Mexico contains the ruins of two missions built in 1629.

April 16, 1946