

Agocs, Alfred

English Girl
MAR 27 1945.
Becomes Bride
Of Sgt. Agocs

Mrs. Frank Fisher, of Springtown, received word yesterday from her son, Sgt. Alfred Agocs, of his marriage in Bristol, England on March 10 to Miss Joan Dowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dowden, of Bristol. They were married in the registrar's office and were attended by Miss Joan Winter, of Bristol, and Pfc. William H. Campbell, U. S. Army. The bride's father and her brother, Dennis Dowden, were present also.

After the ceremony the couple spent nine days at Torquay, one of England's famous seashore resorts. Sgt. Agocs is on a 30-day furlough.

The bride is employed in the office of a Bristol hospital. The bridegroom, a graduate of Liberty High School, was a member of the Liberty football team which won the state championship in 1933. He has been in the service since February 27, 1941, and has been overseas nearly four years, the first three of which he was stationed in Ireland. He was an automobile mechanic before entering the Army and is now a mechanic in the Air Service.
