

Campbell, Forrest

Advances

MAR 6 1944
Carpenter's Mate Second Class Forrest Campbell of 305 East Broad Street, Quakertown, has returned home after 14 months' service in the Aleutians for a 30-day furlough. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeno D. Campbell Jr., of Quakertown R. D. 3, and his wife is the former Mary Jane Unangst, of Quakertown. He is the father of a six-months-old daughter, Patricia Jane, whom he saw for the first time upon his arrival home. A graduate of the Quakertown High School, class of 1940, he entered the U. S. Navy in the year, 1942, received his training in Norfolk, Virginia, and in California, after which he served as Carpenter's Mate in the Construction Battalion, Uncle Sam's well known "Seabees." At the end of his furlough he will return to active duty. He advanced recently.

March 6, 1944