

Titus, Kenneth V.

AIRPLANE MECHANIC—Pvt. Kenneth V. Titus, who will receive his "diploma" as an Army Air Corps plane mechanic at exercises at Keesler Field, Miss., on May 31, as noted in Wednesday's Globe-Times. Pvt. Titus is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Titus, city. He graduated at Bethlehem High School in 1936 and was employed at the Steel Company plant here until his enlistment in the Air Corps. He has been stationed at Keesler Field since his enlistment and has not been home on furlough since "joining up." Mr. and Mrs. Titus left today for Philadelphia to visit their daughter, Mrs. A. Wilhelm, and expect to see their son there and return with him to this city where he will stay for a few days' visit.
